PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Greetings, Marching 100 Family! The 2022 edition of the Incomparable Marching 100 is off to a wonderful start of the marching band season. The band recently performed at the FAMU-UNC football game in North Carolina with the UNC Marching Band and the Orange Blossom Classic vs. the Sonic Boom of the South of Jackson State. We can't wait for what the remainder of the season holds for our beloved band!

This year's national initiative for the M100ABA is our middle & high school mentorship program. More information will be forthcoming regarding this wonderful opportunity for our members to guide and support our youth in our respective communities.

Over the past few weeks, the M100ABA was able to give more than $3,500 in scholarships and book vouchers to our current Marching 100 members. The Marching 100 band staff and students truly appreciate all of your support!

Great things are happening with the Marching 100 and the M100ABA. Let's continue to offer our support and stay connected.

Sincerely,

Kimberly Evans, National President
Marching 100 Alumni Band Association, Inc.
